REGIONAL MEMBER FORUMS

Keep the above dates in mind.

The Regional Member Forums are for each Pistol Shooting Queensland member – Club Committee Members and club members alike.

Questions can be asked; decisions and policies explained; ideas put forward, and comment made.

The Forums are planned to run for a maximum of two hours, so not to be a huge commitment of time for members.

Members are encouraged to come along invitations advising venues and times were sent to clubs to pass on to their members on 06 June, apart from the SW Forum. We are waiting on a date confirmation for the SW region.

We realise that the centres allocated will not suit every member in that particular region, but we do hope to catch up with some of the clubs & members which can't get there later in the year.

Members are able to attend Forums outside their own region of-course – if holidaying or visiting in a particular area it may suit members to attend a Forum there.

RSVP's required ... for catering.

Visits to individual clubs are also in the planning stages.

We are looking for volunteers for all the following events, and for PSQ competitors too!

LOOKING AFTER JUNIORS

Are you helping your club look after its Juniors? Teaching good technique and basic shooting skills first is important for the development of new members, young and old. These skills should be taught progressively, as would occur in any sport.

Some clubs are following the steps below to ensure that their young members (and older members too!) are learning the skills which could later be transferred into any discipline:

1. Air pistol training
2. Air Pistol competition
3. 25m Pistol training .. precision
4. 25m Rapid Fire stage ... training
5. 25m Pistol competition

Some of our juniors have patiently gone through the above learning experience and are now part of the National Development Squad and the PSQ Development Squad which can/has led to State and Australian selection.

HOLSTER CARD EXPIRY

Holster accreditation renewal is due before the expiry date and 30 days after the expiry date is the period allowable for a late renewal.

After 30 days past the expiry date PSQ insurance cover is not in place whilst participating in a holster match.

Members are not eligible to compete in a PSQ /Pistol Australia sanctioned event unless they have holster accreditation which is current; that is, within the period of their accreditation.

The 30 days 'grace' period only applies to insurance cover, not to the eligibility to compete in a sanctioned event.

CATERING FOR PSQ EVENTS @ THE BRISBANE INTERNATIONAL SHOOTING CENTRE

PSQ is looking for a PSQ Member Club, or group, which may enjoy catering for special events.

PSQ has two events that we are looking to have a club or group cater for ... with all profit going to the catering group. These are:

ISSF State Championships

2-3-4 August 2019

&

ISSF Pistol Australia National Championships

8 -12 April 2020

Please contact the PSQ Office for more information: expected numbers; menus; facilities etc can be discussed.

The Service/WA1500 and Black Powder section of the 2020 Pistol Australia Nationals will be held at the Metropolitan PC - the Metropolitan PC will cater for these competitors & volunteers.

Expiry of PSQ Membership

Membership with PSQ and Pistol Australia is only current whilst a member is a current financial member of a PSQ Member Club.

If, for example, a member resigns from a PSQ Member Club in June they will no longer be a PSQ/PA member from that date on. Even though their PSQ membership card will show an expiry date of 31 October this membership (and therefore insurance cover) is only in place whilst a member of a PSQ Member Club.

PSQ needs to be advised of members who have resigned, had their membership terminated or are no longer financial members of the club as soon as this is recorded by the club, to ensure that PSQ has an accurate list of affiliated members.
